THE SHACK

"People are asking the pastors about the best selling book, "The Shack." There are serious problems with the book for discerning Christians who wish to hold to Biblical truths and doctrinal accuracy. There are copies of a review on the lobby table which should be read by every person interested in the book. We live in a day when we must know Biblical truth and hold it sacred to our hearts." - Pastor Bill Ligon

Would You Give It to Jesus?

Loaves and Fishes has been blessed to receive an abundance of clothing for the poor in our community. Many times, clothing and shoes will be given to us that are stained or dirty, with holes or out-of-style. It would greatly benefit our volunteer workers if you would ask yourself this question when bringing in a donation: "Would Jesus be offended if I gave this to Him?"

We desire to distribute the best quality clothing and shoes for those who come to receive from us. Helping in this way would save our volunteers HOURS of sorting. Thank you for your donations of clean, usable clothing and shoes.
 God Bless You,
 Dee Dee Gabelman, Director

Healing Room Testimonies - Prayer Journal of Cheryl Wells

Jan. 22, 2009 - Edna came in for prayer and said that she has had asthma and psoriasis all over her body for many years. She expressed how much it hurt and itched. After prayer she said that her chest opened up, the itching stopped and that she felt the Lord touch her!
 Jan 29, 2009 - Davine came in for prayer for high blood pressure. The valve in her heart was not closing right, her heart fluttered and she had an irregular heart beat. She also had pain in her right hip. She said doctors wanted to do surgery on both her knees. After prayer she said all the pain left her hip and her legs felt better.

Brenda Fipps wants to thank everyone for their many prayers, cards, visits and expressions of love during her recent sickness and hospital stay.
