Randy & Susan Bozarth w/ World Missions Advance
"In 1989 a revolution spear headed by the Holy Spirit took place in Romania. The Communist dictator, Chauchesku was taken down and freedom began to slowly infiltrate the streets, villages and cities of this land." In 1997 the Bozarth family revisited Romania and were amazed at the progress. This summer they will return to encourage the people of God and preach the Gospel to the lost. May 27-June 7, they will minister in Romania and Poland...Susan in a Women's Conference and the others will encourage native leaders and missionaries.

David & Leslye Schneier in France and the Ukraine - David recently reported that, "The Messianic Congregation in Paris is facing a door closing financial need due to the world wide economic crisis and the Gaza War. This congregation has been in existence over 20 years and is probably the most stable one in Western Europe. It is a key congregation in a key county and must not be forced to close down because of this shortfall. It is also one of the few congregations in Europe that has their own building. There is only one other small congregation in France and the light of the Gospel cannot be dimmed here because of finances." Contact David & Leslye: www.schneiers@aol.com
